SUMMER AT BOWLING GREEN
Bolightful Entertainments by the Charm ing Relles and Beaux.

(Correspondence of the Dispatch.)
Bowling Green, Va., September 23.—
The summer season, with its many pleasures, is over. The summer girls have returned from the springs, mountains, and seasides, and are unsilv preparing for the winter campaign. Everybody is telling everybody else what a perfectly lovely time they have had, and oid Father Fine is standing off in the distance learning on his stekle and suilting a grim smile as he of fighter your reschuds while you may.

Hartford Conn., thus gives the facts as they happened.

"My daughter Lulu," began Mrs. Ferre,
"Is seventeen years old and became very ill with St. Vitus dance over a year ago.
She became so bad that she lost the use of her right arm and side and we thought at one time she would lese her specch.
Her tongue was almost paralyzed.

"She was so bad she could not feed herself, and at night she would get so neryous I had to sit and hold her.
"I tried sevral doctors, but they did not do her any good. I did not find anything that would help her until I tried Dr.
Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy.
She is now, by the use of this medicine,
"I wish you could have seen her last summer and see her now. She does not look like the same person. Her friends all thought that she would not live.

"I thank God and Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy for restoring my daughter to health.
